Reliability is our strength.
FUCHS AGRIFARM lubricants are the result of decades of experience.

Our know-how guarantees the best possible reliability.
FUCHS AGRIFARM is the worldwide specialist for high-end lubricants.

Fuchs has been active in the agricultural lubricants market for more than 50 years, both as an OEM supplier to machinery manufacturers and in the workshop sector. Advanced and innovative AGRIFARM brand lubricants ensure the best possible reliability for all equipment, from engines and gearboxes to hydraulic systems in machinery and vehicles.

Total reliability:

AGRIFARM lubricants undergo the severest practical trials and tests during development. This ensures that your valuable machinery and vehicle fleets enjoy the best possible protection.

AGRIFARM makes the difference:

AGRIFARM products are high-end lubricants of the highest quality made by FUCHS which fulfil all the current standards set by leading manufacturers. FUCHS only uses carefully selected and specially developed raw materials for AGRIFARM lubricants. From the base oil through to the additives.

This flyer contains an overview of AGRIFARM lubricants. Just contact us – we have the perfect fluid for your machinery.

Agricultural machines have to prove their value in day-to-day practical use. As a professional, you know how vital the right oil is to the performance and life of machinery. Reason enough to trust FUCHS AGRIFARM high-tech lubricants.

Tangible results of this technology are, for example, noticeably longer oil change intervals in engines and significantly fewer signs of wear.

Significantly less wear = greater reliability and lower costs
